

Week's Social Happenings in Towns of State

PROVO.

Miss Sytha Brown and Eugene L. Roberts were married at noon Wednesday in the temple at Salt Lake. A wedding supper was given in their honor at the home of the parents of the bride, Professor and Mrs. J. L. Brown, attended by the relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts left the same evening on No. 4 for an extended trip through Europe.

The junior members of the Y. L. M. L. A. of the Fifth ward gave a very enjoyable tin shower Thursday evening in honor of their instructor, Miss Emma Newell. Many useful pieces for kitchen use were received and a merry evening passed. A dainty lunch was served.

Mrs. Emma Ashworth was pleasantly surprised at her home Thursday afternoon by the members of the Fourth Ward Relief society. A pleasant social afternoon was spent. A dainty lunch was served.

Miss Goldie Gillespie entertained the members of the Picnic club at her home Friday evening. A pleasant social evening was enjoyed. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. W. Beckstead of Rexburg, Ida., has returned to her home after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Berg.

Albert Thatcher son of Mr. and Mrs. George B. Thatcher, surprised his relatives and friends by bringing home a bride, formerly Miss Alice Grant of Salt Lake City. A reception was given in their honor Tuesday evening at the home of his parents. About forty relatives and friends met the bride and extended congratulations and best wishes to the happy couple. A sumptuous supper was served. On Wednesday evening a reception was given in their honor by Miss Lizzie Thatcher.

Mrs. Mary Honey announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Sarah, to J. Owen Rowe of Spanish Fork, the marriage to take place on Wednesday next in the temple at Salt Lake.

The Cluff family held their annual family reunion at the Provo lake resort Wednesday, members of the prominent family coming from all parts of the state. A number of invited guests were present and participated in the pleasures of the day.

Mrs. Annelia Nelson entertained at tea Tuesday in honor of her aunt, Mrs. Henrietta Allen of Lewiston, who is visiting here, and whose 85th birthday anniversary occurred on the 20th. The guests were old-time friends of Mrs. Allen and spent a delightful afternoon with the aged guest of honor and the amiable hostess. A dainty lunch was served.

Mrs. J. C. Graham is visiting her son, Leyland Graham and wife, in Salt Lake for a few days.

Dr. J. K. Fornis, a student at the College of Physicians and Surgeons at Baltimore, is visiting friends in this city.

Joseph Theriot of Eureka spent Saturday and Sunday with his brother, George Theriot and wife, of this city.

A very enjoyable bundle shower was given Monday evening by Miss Virginia Bean in honor of Miss Emma Newell. The rooms were prettily decorated with June roses. About thirty young people enjoyed an evening of music and games. Many beautiful and useful presents were received by the guests of honor. A dainty lunch was served.

Mrs. A. L. Booth very successfully engineered a surprise on her husband at their home Monday evening, the occasion being Mr. Booth's 40th birthday. The members of the city council, of which Mr. Booth is president, were invited down to eat berries and cream and were almost as much surprised as Mr. Booth himself when they found their wives and other guests awaiting their arrival. A very enjoyable social evening was passed. A sumptuous supper was served. The guests departed, wishing their host a continued life of happiness and prosperity.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerre Driscoll and Mr. and Mrs. Doty of Eureka were visitors in our city Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hedquist and Mrs. Kittie Hines left Thursday afternoon for Europe, where they will spend several months sight-seeing.

Tick McCoolough, formerly of this city, but now residing in San Francisco, is visiting relatives and friends in this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Alf Masterman and family of Salt Lake City spent the fore part of the week visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Kirkwood, parents of Mrs. Masterman.

Miss Delia Cluff entertained a few friends at dinner Friday in honor of Miss Fern Hickman of Logan.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Knight and Professor G. H. Brimhall left the early part of the week for Canada.

Dr. and Mrs. Byron W. King and R. H. Potter have left for a two months' visit with friends and relatives in the east.

Miss Ruth Kirkwood was the pleasant hostess at a dinner party Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Kirkwood, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Alf Masterman.

Cards are out announcing the wedding reception to be given by Mr. and Mrs. James E. Dunn in honor of the marriage of their daughter, Miss Maud, to Joseph A. Passey, Thursday evening, June 28.

Mrs. C. A. Glazier and Miss Hazel Taylor delightfully entertained at a family social Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Glazier in honor of Miss Emma Newell. Beautiful roses were used in profusion for decoration. Music, cards and partaking of an elaborate lunch all tended to make a most pleasant evening.

J. Leo Bown and Miss Emma Newell were married Wednesday in the temple at Salt Lake. They were accompanied by Mrs. M. C. Newell, mother of the bride, and Mrs. Reed Smoot. The ceremony was performed at noon, after which the party were driven to the home of Mrs. C. E. Eldredge, where an elaborate wedding breakfast awaited them, returning to Provo on the afternoon train. A grand wedding reception was given in honor of the newly wed couple at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Newell. The bride was attired in an elegant gown of English crepe de chene over white tulle. The groom wore a usual suit of black. The parlor was decorated with branches of pink roses which were festooned from the corners of the room, forming in the center to the chandeliers. The dining room was arranged with red roses. Many beautiful and expensive presents were received. Delicious refreshments were served.

A farewell musical was given in honor of Eugene Roberts Monday evening in the First Ward Assembly hall. An excellent musical programme was rendered, refreshments served and a pleasant evening enjoyed by all.

Mrs. Jordan Hanson entertained at dinner Sunday in honor of her aunt, Mrs. Henrietta Allen.

The Park family, one of the pioneer families of the state, held a family reunion at the home of Davis S. Park of Provo Bench. Many relatives from Salt Lake and different parts of the state were in attendance. A thoroughly enjoyable day was spent. An elaborate dinner was served.

The many friends of Tony Streble will be pleased to learn of his marriage with Miss Minnie Shepherd of Salt Lake, which was solemnized in the Salt Lake temple Wednesday.

The Pallas club members were the guests of Miss Bertha Barney Thursday evening. A profitable and social evening was spent. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Flora Jenkins was the delightful hostess at a linen shower at her home Monday evening, given in honor of Misses Maud Dunn and Emma Newell. The rooms and tables were elaborately decorated with red roses and carnations. About thirty young people enjoyed an evening of music, games and recitations. A dainty lunch was served.

A bundle shower was given Friday evening to Miss Sarah Honey by a number of her friends at the home of Miss Lydia Knudsen. Roses were abundantly used in decoration. Music, recitations and games made the hours pass merrily. A dainty lunch was served. Many expensive and useful presents were received.

Daniel Kirkwood and Miss Bertha Burles were married Wednesday evening at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Kirkwood. Bishop T. N. Taylor officiating. George Burles acted as best man and Miss Dotie Burles as bridesmaid. The bride was attired in a beautiful gown of white mull, and carried white carnations. Pink and white roses were used for decorations. The lawn and grounds were lighted with Japanese lanterns. Many beautiful and useful presents were received. A sumptuous supper was served.

Mrs. C. E. Loose chaperoned a party of young people on a launching party on Utah lake Friday evening. Leaving here in the cool of the evening in an auto, they soon reached the resort, where the launch awaited them. A delightful hour was spent on the lake and then returned to the resort where lunch was served.

The teachers of the Sixth Ward Sunday school gave a most enjoyable social Thursday evening in honor of one of their co-workers, Miss Maud Dunn, at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Dunn. Games, music and recitations were enjoyed until a late hour. Delicious refreshments were served. Miss Dunn was presented with a beautiful set of silver knives and forks.

The old folks of the city enjoyed an outing at the Upper Falls Friday. No trouble or expense was spared by the committee to make the occasion a red letter day. An excellent musical programme was given, prizes awarded for various amusements, and an elaborate dinner served.

PARK CITY.

The affair proved to be a grand success, both socially and financially, as quite a neat sum was realized which will be used to help defray the expenses of the church.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Gallivan returned from a brief visit to the metropolis Thursday.

The ladies of the Congregational church gave a strawberry and cream festival in the parlors of their church Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kenate and daughter Lillian went down to Salt Lake Monday on a short visit with friends.

Mrs. E. C. Norris and daughter Della went down to the city Sunday afternoon to attend the funeral of Miss Lizzie Jones.

Misses Laura Huddy and Ellen MacIntosh spent Thursday afternoon with Miss Freck at her home.

Mrs. J. M. Cross and daughter, Miss Ninan, are visiting in the Park with Mrs. F. M. Smith.

Mrs. J. E. Westover returned to her home in the Park Thursday morning after a ten days' visit with her mother in Salt Lake.

St. Mary's school of this city finished a very successful year on Tuesday and the school rendered a very interesting programme in honor of the silver jubilee of Rev. Father Galligan.

Mr. and Mrs. James Ines and family came up to the Park Wednesday morning on a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Welsh.

A reception was held Thursday at the parochial residence of Rev. Father Galligan, the occasion being his twenty-fifth anniversary of his ordination as a Catholic priest. At 9 o'clock a high mass was sung by Rev. Father Galligan, assisted by Rev. Father Roser and the sermon was delivered by Rev. Father Southmeier of All Hallows college. After mass the reception was held and Rev. Father Galligan was assisted in entertaining by the Rev. Fathers Roser, Baugh, Bernes, Southmeier, Chauve, Duclax and Donahue.

In the evening the Park City band called on his reverence and rendered several beautiful selections.

Rev. Father Galligan was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents.

Frank E. Lugea spent Friday in Park City visiting with John A. Mallia. Jack Riney returned home from the city Friday morning after a brief visit.

Mrs. P. H. Towey entertained the members of the 500-card club. Several games were played and the prizes were won by Mrs. Back and Mrs. L. Klunball. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Julius Frankel Wednesday next.

Mrs. Grubell gave a rubber party Tuesday afternoon for the abridgment of the Congregational Sunday school. An admission fee of five and ten cents was charged, the proceeds going to the library.

PAYSON.

The elegant home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dixon on Thursday evening was the scene of one of the most brilliant social achievements that has ever occurred within the precincts of our city, where a large number of relatives and friends had assembled to do honor to the occasion of the marriage of Miss Jennie Dixon of this city and Leslie Hickman of Benning, which event occurred Wednesday in the Salt Lake temple. The rooms of the home were adorned with many varieties of fresh cut flowers. The portable floor of the opera house was transferred to the lawn in front of the house, where a few happy hours were whiled away in dancing. Many kind wishes were extended, and many kind words expressed for the happiness of the young people. After an interval of social converse re-
